Dear Sri K. Chengalaraya Reddy,

You perhaps remember that we had a talk about the need for a Secretary to the Legislature who was likely to be a permanent incumbment of the office and preferably one who had some previous experience in Parliamentary Practice and Proceedure. Under the new Constitution, the Secretary will have very onerous duties and will have heavy responsibilities. The proceedure under the new Constitution Rules of Proceedure have to be revised to suit the Constitution. There are various new types of business which have to be provided for in the rules. This work of revising the rules has to be undertaken immediately so that the revised rules may be brought into force in time for the next session of the Assembly.

I understand that Sri. G.S. Venkataramana Iyer, who was the Secretary of the Constituent Assembly has reverted to the Secretariat with the abolition of the post of the Secretary, Constituent Assembly. He was for some time the Assistant Secretary to the Legislature and has also acted as Secretary to the Legislature. He has experience of the kind which is necessary for the work of the Secretary to the Assembly.

I therefore request that immediate orders may be passed by Government posting him as Secretary to the Legislative Assembly.
